

PLATO Reading Survey

Name: _____

Put an "X" in the box that reflects your feeling about the statement	Strongly Agree	Agree	Disagree	Strongly Disagree	Unsure
1. I believe that I am a good reader
2. Generally, I like to read
3. I often read more than is required by my classroom assignments
4. There is material at home (like books, magazines) that I can read
5. I understand most of the words that I read in my textbooks
6. I spend at least 15 minutes each day reading outside of class
7. I feel I need additional help in developing my reading skills
8. I often forget what I have read minutes after reading it
9. If I don't understand something that I've read, I will usually go back and re-read it
10. Reading is the basic building block of learning
11. I am most often frustrated when I have to read something
12. I would prefer to have something told to me, instead of having to read it
13. I have read or plan to read a complete book this year
14. If I find an issue or subject that I'm interested in, I will search out additional material to read about it
15. I plan to read to my child on a daily basis
16. I am able to sound out most words that I'm not familiar with
17. I am reading more now than at any other time when I was in school
18. I would be willing to spend more time to improve my reading ability
19. I feel I could do better in school if I could read better
20. If I have to do a lot of reading I get discouraged					