

Julius Caesar Newsletter
Publisher Projects – English 2
Oral Presentation Rubric

	2	4	6	8
Content	Little or no knowledge of topic. Missing details. Unclear purpose. Does not have grasp of information	Limited knowledge of topic. Uncomfortable with material. Only able to answer simple questions	Covers topic, and answers questions; however, does not elaborate or explain	Provided in-depth coverage of topic. Knowledge of topic. Holds audience attention. Answers questions with explanations
Collaboration	Does not work together to present findings.	One student speaks for whole group.	Makes an effort to work together.	Works as a cohesive unit to make presentation
Physical Delivery	Very distracted. Slouching or leaning on podium/desk	Somewhat distracted. Superfluous movement, and pacing	Seems comfortable, relaxed	Very confident, relaxed posture
Organization	Presentation disorganized	Somewhat organized	Coherent presentation	Very well-planned and coherent. Planning evident
Use of Technology	Newsletter has many empty spaces. Too many images. Very few articles. Inappropriate material	Some empty spaces. Technology tool used to some extent. Design set takes away from material	Technology enhances presentation. Chooses design that enhances presentation. Room for improvement	Very good layout. Excellent balance between articles, and graphics. Uses technology as highly effective tool
Elocution/Eye Contact	Read off the screen or paper; no eye contact. Mumbles or speaks too softly for students in back of room to hear.	Primarily read from screen or paper with occasional eye contact. Voice is low, and incorrectly pronounces characters' names, places, events, etc..	Made an effort to make eye contact. Voice is clear. Pronounced majority of names correctly	Eye contact at all times. Enunciates clearly. Good volume and pacing
Grammar/Mechanics	Presentation has gross mechanical errors. Has 5 or more spelling and/or grammatical errors. Errors detract from project	Presentation has 4 spelling and/or grammatical errors	There are 3 spelling and/or grammatical errors	There are 1-2 misspellings or grammatical errors