

Feature	Juan Cabrillo	Christopher Columbus	Juan Ponce de Leon	Herman Cortez
What was the explorer's native country?
From what country did the explorer begin his journey?
To what continent did the explorer's expedition take him?
What name did the explorer give to the land that he found?
What was the goal of each explorer?
What specifically was he trying to find or do?
Did the explorer accomplish his goal?
Did the explorer live through his expedition?
If the explorer did not live through his expedition, where was he when he died?
If the explorer did not live through his expedition, how did he die?
Was the explorer appointed by their homeland to become the governor of the land they discovered?

With how many ships did the explorer begin his expedition?
Were expeditions with more than one ship more successful than expeditions with only one ship?
Were ships the only mode of transportation that this explorer used?
What other forms of transportation were used on the expedition?
Did this explorer use wagons?
Did this explorer use horses?
Did the explorer meet native people on his expedition?
What was the name of the native people that this explorer met?
How did the explorer treat the native people that he met on his expedition?
How did the native people treat the explorer when they met him?				